Increase Suffolk Lot Owner's Bill From 19 Cents to $1.

RIVERHEAD, L. I., July 3.—Thomas F. Byrnes, chairman of the State Board of Tax Commissioners, to-day inspected the assessment books of Suffolk county towns. Finding that the property of the Long Finding that the property of the Long Island Railroad was assessed at $6,500 a mile in one town and $11,000 a mile in another, helitologithe assessors to raise all the assessments, suggesting that as high as $18,000 a mile would not be too high.

$18,000 a mile would not be too high.
Commissioner Byrnes read a letter from E. R. Satterley, a real estate agent of New Orleans, La., to Gov. Sulzer. Satterely complained that the assessment on a piece of property which he bought of a "boom lot"
company at Port Jefferson and on which he paid a tax of 19 cents a year for six years,
had been "awitched" to a Philadelphia concern, which had recently sent him a bill for $1 for 1912 taxes. Commissioner Byrnes said he understood that there were a number of these tax adjusting bureaus doing business in Suffolk county and it looked as though some official in the county "stood in" with the "sharks."

TERM IN PRISON

To-day Quinlan was in court while the jury in the case of Elizabeth Gurley Flynn was still out. He was arrested by Constable Watson and immediately Assistant Recorder Force moved for Quinlan's sentence.

Lawyer Hunziker, one of the I. W. W. counsel, jumped up and protested, but Johnson's $30,000 SECURE YET. ing the pronouncement Quinlan's face wore a sneering smile. Immediately one of the I. W. W. counsel left the court room post haste for Trenton to apply for room post haste for Trenton to apply for a writ of error in Quinlan's case.

Quinlan was locked up in the county jail. The police and sheriffs were on hand in force in case of any demonstration, but there was no trouble.

Since his conviction Quinlan has been referring harshly to the courts and police of Paterson in his speeches here and elsewhere.

The jury in the case of Miss Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, which went out at 11:40 A. M. yesterday, came in last night at 10 o'clock and reported no decision. They were locked in, and 12:25 o'clock this afternoon they came out again and reported that they were unable to arrive at a verdict, and that as there was friction between members of the jury it was deadlocked.

Judge Klenert told them that they must try to come to a decision as the case was important and the State had gone to great expense in the prosecution. The jury filed out and returned at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Judge Klenert wasn't in court, but County Clerk Slater took their verdict. They said they couldn't agree and were dismissed. It is said that they stood 9 to 3 for acquittal. This is a Hudson county jury, the first foreign jury to try a case in Patterson.

His con-viction was affirmed by the New Jersey Court of Errors and Appeal.
